Subject: Choices magazine now available on farmdoc

farmland Subscriber:

The farmdoc project is proud to announce that it will now distribute the quarterly online magazine Choices in partnership with the Agricultural & Applied Economics Association. Choices is the main outreach vehicle of the Agricultural & Applied Economics Association and it is designed to provide current coverage regarding economic implications of food, farm, resource, or rural community issues directed toward a broad audience. To enhance outreach effectiveness, Choices publishes thematic-oriented groupings of papers. The broad themes that are often covered in Choices include: agriculture and trade, resources and the environment, consumers and markets, agribusiness and finance, and rural economics. This is an outstanding resource and we encourage you to take a look at not only the current issue but also the extensive archive of past issues now available at the farmdoc website.
